A. Chair of the Election Meeting

1. The Chair of each Election Meeting shall be someone who is a student at the University of Virginia but not a member of the Organization.
2. The President shall begin reaching out to non-members three weeks prior to the Election Meeting to find a Chair for the meeting.
3. At any executive meeting within three weeks of the election meeting, the President shall announce his/her selection for Chair of the election meeting. The Executive Board will then vote on whether to accept or reject the President's appointment for Chair. If two-thirds of the Executive Board votes to reject the President's appointment, the members who voted to reject shall advise the President on how to find an appointee suitable for the Board.

B. Sergeant-at-Arms

1. After the Chair assumes control of the meeting, s/he will ask for a volunteer to be Sergeant-at-Arms for the duration of the meeting.
2. The Sergeant-at-Arms will ensure that the room is secure for the duration of the meeting, and that nobody enters or exits the room while someone is speaking or the voting process is underway.
3. As such, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall vote last during each round of voting, but shall be guaranteed his/her right to vote, so long as s/he is a member of the Organization.

C. Duties of the Secretary

1. The Secretary of the Organization shall take minutes during the election meeting.
2. The Secretary is allowed to vote during the meeting, so long as s/he is not barred from doing so by these Bylaws.
3. If the incumbent Secretary wishes to run for an office during the meeting, s/he must appoint a Secretary Pro Tempore to carry out his/her duties while one of the offices the Secretary is running for is being considered.

D. Counting the Votes

1. All votes during election meeting shall be counted by two Vote Counters. These Vote Counters shall by default be the incumbent President and incumbent Vice President of the Organization.
2. The Vote Counters cannot vote, run for any position, nor speak in favor of any candidate during the election meeting.
3. The Vote Counters can speak for or against a proposed referendum to the Constitution or these Bylaws during the election meeting.
4. If either the incumbent President or incumbent Vice President wishes to run for a position, s/he must appoint a Vote Counter Pro Tempore to replace him/her prior to the start of the meeting.

E. Overview of the Election Process

1. Each election meeting will start with the announcement of the Chair selected by the President.
2. The meeting will then take each proposed Constitutional Amendment in the order they were submitted to the Executive Board

3. The meeting will then take each proposed change to the Bylaws in the order they were submitted to the Executive Board
 4. The meeting will then take elections for each office in the order prescribed by the Constitution

1. The proposed Constitutional Amendment or Proposed Change to the Bylaws shall be read to the room, then
 2. The Chair will seek a Speaker in Favor, a Speaker Opposed, and a Speaker General to the Topic in a cycle until no more speakers are found, or the previous question is called, then
 3. There will then be a vote for the proposed Amendment, with the options “Yes” or “No” being the only viable options.
- G. Speaking Process for Officer Positions
1. The description of the Officer Position being elected shall be read by the Chair to the room, then
 2. The Chair will then ask if any of the unaccepted nominations will be accepted or rejected, then
 3. The Chair will ask for any new nominations for the position being considered, then
 4. The Chair will close all nominations, and ask all nominees for the position to leave the room, except for the first nominee to speak. The nominees will speak in the order they were nominated, then
 5. Each nominee will give a speech for the allotted time, with all other nominees standing outside the room, then
 6. (altered by Bylaw Amendment I) While all nominees are outside the room, the Chair will seek a Speaker in favor of each candidate, in the order they spoke, followed by a Speaker General to the Topic, in a cycle until no more people in the room wish to speak, or until the previous question is called, then
 7. The Voting Process will take place, as described in Section F, then
 8. All candidates will enter the room and stand before the Chair, who will announce the winner of the election.
- H. Voting Process
1. (updated by Bylaw Amendments II and III) Once the voting process begins, all those in attendance who are allowed to vote will write down their choice of the candidates on a piece of paper and place that piece of paper inside a ballot box which is required to keep the voter’s choice confidential.
 2. After all votes have been received, as according to the Vote-Counters, those Vote-Counters will then count the votes, but not announce the votes to anyone within or outside of the Organization.
 3. (updated by Bylaw Amendment III) If, after the votes have been counted, no candidate has received a majority of the votes, the candidate who received the lowest number of votes, as well as all candidates who received less than ten percent (10%) of the votes, will be removed from the list of candidates. The Vote-Counters will then announce to the room that another vote must be taken, in accordance with Subsections 1 and 2 of this Section, with the updated candidate list.

4. (updated by Bylaw Amendment III) When a candidate has received a majority of the votes, the Vote-Counters will be then inform the Chair of the winner, before having the candidates called back into the room.
- I. Effectiveness of Referenda and Elections
 1. The approved referenda, both on amendments to the Constitution and changes to these Bylaws, shall take effect immediately upon adjournment of the Election Meeting in which they were approved, unless the amendment or change stipulates an alternate time of effectiveness.
 2. All elected Officers shall be considered incumbent to their elected Office immediately upon adjournment of the Election Meeting.

1. IRO will take part in the beloved UVA tradition of Beach Week.
2. So long as there is a week between the end of final examinations and the beginning of final exercises, there will be Beach Week, and so long as there is Beach Week, there will be IRO Beach Week.
3. IRO Beach Week shall be planned by the President Emeritus of the Organization, who shall hold the title of Beach Week Czar until s/he graduates from the University of Virginia.

XVI. Finances

A. The UVA Fund

1. The Organization's UVA Fund will have enough money to last IRO two semesters without needing any additional revenue, unless a greater withdrawal is approved by a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote of the Executive Board.

B. Bank Accounts

1. The Treasurer shall approve an amount which the IRO accounts will not go below
2. The following Officers of the Organization shall have Debit Cards:
 - a. President
 - b. Treasurer
 - c. Both Members-at-Large

3. The President's Bank Card will be the card used for VAMUN, VICS, and VIGMUN related purchases
- C. Rules Regarding Financial Access
 1. The Treasurer shall prepare the Rules for the Finances of the International Relations Organization, which shall be approved by the Executive Board. These rules will clarify the responsibilities, restrictions, and other duties of Officers of the Organization in regards to spending, budgeting, or purchasing with money that belongs to the Organization.
- D. Other General Notes
 1. VICS will always break even, if not achieve a positive net revenue
- XVII. Information Technology
 - A. Responsibility
 1. The President of IRO shall appoint a Director of Information Technology (IT), who will be in charge of the various technological functions of the Organization
 2. This Director of IT can be a member of the Executive Board, but if not, the appointee must be a dues-paying member of the International Relations Organization at U.Va.
 3. The appointee must be approved by a majority vote of the Executive Board, excluding the appointee if s/he is a member of the Board.
 - B. Duties of the Director of Information Technology
 1. The Director of Information Technology shall have access to all websites run for IRO or functions of it, including, but not limited to, the following websites:

 - c. <http://www.vamun.org/>
 2. Unless otherwise approved by the Executive Board, the Director of IT shall serve as webmaster for all websites run for IRO or functions of it.
 3. The Director shall have access to all social media accounts run for IRO or functions of it, including, but not limited to, for IRO, VAMUN, VICS, VIGMUN, the Wilson Journal, and Radio Free UVA. This will include, but is not limited to, the services of Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- XVIII. Relations with the University of Virginia's Student Body
 - A. University Elections
 1. Neither the Organization nor any member of the Executive Board acting in an official capacity may publically endorse any candidate for an office within any student election at the University of Virginia. These elections include, but are not limited to, those for Student Council, the Honor Committee, the University Judiciary Committee, College Council, or any class council.
- XIX. Special Meeting on November 2, 2016
 - A. For the Special Meeting called by the President for November 2, 2016, the following procedure shall be used:
 1. The Chair of this meeting shall be Rick Yoder, the resident of Room 7 on the Lawn and not a member of the International Relations Organization at U.Va. He shall be in charge of enforcing the rules and procedures outlined in this Amendment to the Bylaws, the Bylaws, and the Constitution, as well as Robert's Rules of Order if necessary.

2. Before beginning the meeting, the Chair shall ask for a volunteer to be a Sergeant-at-Arms. So long as this Sergeant-at-Arms is a member of the Organization, s/he shall be guaranteed a vote.
3. The incumbent President and Vice President shall serve as Vote Counters, and the Secretary shall take minutes of the business that occurs at this meeting.
4. For each set of options listed in the call, there will be cycles of a speaker in favor of each option, in the order they are listed, and a speaker general to the topic. The Chair of the Election Meeting shall ask for calling the question after three of these cycles, but may entertain a call earlier, so long as it does not interrupt a cycle of speakers.
5. After the question has been called, voters will rank their preferences for each option. Voters may vote for none of the options. Based on this alternative vote system, the first option to achieve the threshold necessary for approval (two-thirds for amendments to the Constitution; a majority for those to the Bylaws) shall be approved. If none of the options achieve this threshold, then no options shall be approved. After this, the results will be announced to the room, and the next set of options will be considered.
6. This will be used until the last set of options, which regards the order of elections. There will be an unmoderated caucus, the length of which will be determined by the members present, for the purpose of writing amendments which will determine the order of elections. These options will then be submitted to the Chair, and spoken on and voted on in the same manner as used for the other sets.

Amendments to the Bylaws

Bylaw Amendment I

Approved at a Special Meeting on November 2, 2016

For each position being elected, before the candidates give their speeches to the membership, there will be a one (1) minute speech by the outgoing holder of the position, so long as s/he is not running for reelection. This speech will be general to the topic, for the purpose of recognizing the important things to consider when considering a candidate for the office. If the outgoing holder is running for reelection, the President of the Organization will give this speech. The speaker is not allowed to endorse any candidate for the office. The candidates will be outside the room for this speech.

Bylaw Amendment II

Approved at a Special Meeting on November 2, 2016

If the Vote Counters and the Chair of the Election Meeting deem it appropriate, voting may be done through computers instead of by paper ballots. While a form on the internet may be used for voting, the Vote Counters are required to provide a computer for those who do not bring a computer to use.

Bylaw Amendment III

Approved at a Special Meeting on November 2, 2016

Instead of voting for one candidate at a time, eliminating candidates until one candidate receives a majority of the votes, voters will submit a ballot once, ranking their candidates in order of preference. The ranking will be "1" for the first choice of a voter, "2" for the second choice, and so on. The vote counters will then apply the Alternative Vote to determine the winner of the election.
